Prelude "Dear Lord and Father of Mankind" -- George Blake

Liturgists: 8:30 A.M.-Donnie Norton /10:30 A.M.- Betty Rettig

Responsive Call to Worship: Psalm 139:1-5

L: O Lord, you have searched me and you know me.

P: You know when I sit and when I rise, you perceive my thoughts from afar.

L: You discern my going out and my lying down

P: You are familiar with all my ways

L: Before a word is on my tongue you know it completely, O Lord.

*All those who are able are invited to stand.

*Hymn # 139: Praise to the Lord, the Almighty

Prayer of Confession: (unison) Leader

O God, you have created our bodies, knitting together each part, weaving us into marvelous beings. We are the same yet so different. Yet we fail to honor these gifts. We neglect our bodies and our health. We value ideas more than health. We look at others and are not reminded of your command to love our neighbor as our self. Remind us that our bodies are your precious gift, and that your Holy Spirit dwells within us. Help us reclaim a sense of wonder and delight as we care for our bodies. Help us to love our neighbors. Restore and remake us this day, that our bodies may join our spirits in witnessing to your love. Amen.

Offertory "In Humble Adoration" - W. A. Mozart

*Doxology #94

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; praise God, all creatures here below: Alleluia! Alleluia! Praise God, the source of all our gifts! Praise Jesus Christ, whose power uplifts! Praise the Spirit, Holy Spirit! Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

Prayer of Dedication

Holy God, you created us all the same but different. You call us all by name and give us all that we need. May we honor you with our offerings that we bring. Use them to share your love with those around us and those throughout this broken world. Amen

*Hymn # 128: He Leadeth Me: O Blessed Thought

*Benediction
